

ENVL/SUST 3701: International Sustainable Development*Presentation schedule (2020)

All presenters must post their powerpoint presentations on their blogs by midnight on December 23rd and email me. I will review the presentations and provide feedback within a few days. Each team must bring a USB to be used to transfer the presentation to the group laptop when we get to Ecuador.

DATE	LOCATION	PRESENTERS	TOPIC
01/01/20 Evening	NYC	Gregory Fischer	Seismic activity in Ecuador with a focus on the Galapagos Islands and the high peaks along the Andes
01/01/20 Evening	NYC	Lauren Teach and Madison Roberts	Biodiversity in the Amazon and Galapagos Islands
01/02/20 Morning	NYC	Haley Wilmot	Tourism, Development and Conservation in the Galapagos Islands
01/04/20 Evening	Galapagos	Julianne Tucker and Jessica Yohn	The role of the Galapagos region in global weather
01/05/20 Evening	Amazon	Taylor Patterson and Evan Yunker	Chevron (Texaco) and oil pollution in the Ecuadorian Amazon
01/07/20 Evening	Guayaquil	Valentina Fiero and Ryan Gibson	Ecuador's economy and chief exports

01/08/20 Evening	Cuenca, Paul's Balcony (BBQ)	Paul Amos and Tait Chirenje	US retiree living in Ecuador. Will also watch two short clips called " US Citizens relocating to Mexico form a unique expat community " and " Happier than billionaires in Costa Rica " and the rebuttal , then discuss the impact of American retirees on Central and South America
01/09/20	Cuenca	Open	Open ended discussion about the trip and South American issues.
01/12/20 Evening	Zamora	Moirá Sweeder and John Escobar	Life at high elevation: volcanoes, agriculture, water and health
01/13/20 Evening	Mindo	Cassandra Shank and Nicholas Toth	Cloud Forests (compare with cloud forests in other parts of the world)
01/15/20 Evening	Quito	Tait Chirenje and Gregory Fischer	Ecuador Field Experience Group Reflection